Business Development: From Start to Scale

Assignment Questions

Week 3 –Industry Structure and Company Analysis

Q 1) Sugar manufacturing companies have received a business development boost due to:

a. Methanol blending
b. Ethanol blending
c. Molasses blending
d. None of the above

Q2) Which of the following is a service business?

a. Capital Goods
b. Automobiles
c. Pharmaceuticals
d. Broking

Q3) The capital goods industry typically serves the following sectors of the economy:

a. Agriculture
b. Exports
c. Banking
d. Infrastructure and Industry

Q4) In the Indian retail industry, the entry of organized players causes:

a. Increase of prices to consumers in all cases
b. Shift from informal trade to modern trade
c. Decrease of prices to consumers in all cases
d. Cartelization of retail stores

Q5) Which of the following industries will be directly benefited by the 'China Plus One' policy of MNCs and the developed world?

a. Coal industry
b. Chemical industry
c. Edible oil industry
d. Hotel industry

Q6) Differentiation requires Business Development to strike a prudent balance between the market share benefits and:

a. Market share losses
b. Reputation
c. Financial returns
d. Business strategy

Q7) Skill levels of employees lead to:

a. Good buffer for the future
b. Repeat work
c. Competitiveness of the company
d. Complete elimination of experience curve and learning curve Q8) Sudarshan Chemicals operates in the business of:

a. Medicines
b. Solvents
c. Colours and Pigments
d. Fertilizers

Q9) The chemical industry needs extraordinary attention to:

a. Scaling up
b. People management
c. Public relations
d. Safe operations

Q10) Company analysis is done regularly by:

a. Companies and competitors
b. Analysts
c. Investors
d. All the above